Prayers for Private Use

My God, I bring myself to you.
May what I say and how I say it;
May what I do and how I do it;
May what I have and how I share it;
May my life and how I live - it all declare that you are alive and that you are good. Let it all give you the honour you deserve.

Help me to turn to you in prayer for others who need you. I pray for my community. Let it be a place where people care for each other. Let it be a place where people are safe and secure. I pray for those who feel lost, defeated and lonely. I pray for those who are hurting and confused. I pray for those who are afraid.

My God, there is so much need. I pause and speak to you in prayer the names of the people who are on my heart.

Thank you for being big enough to carry all these needs. Thank you for being big enough to carry me. Thank you for bringing love and life.
I pray in Jesus' name.
Amen.

Joint Church Meeting This Tuesday

The Presbytery Plan will bring us into a partnership with four other churches over the next few years. In response to this members of all the churches are invited to come together to pray and seek God's guidance. The gatherings will be the first Tuesday of the month at 7pm rotating around each church.

We will host the next gathering at 7pm Tuesday 4 October in the Centre.

This is an extremely important meeting and as many people as possible are encouraged to come. Lifts will be organised.

Come and seek the Lord!

Bless the neighbourhood this Christmas

The Christmas project to bless our community has been launched. It involves sewing and making stockings as well as contributing to gifts for children from the Lunch Club. More information is available from Fiona

The Community Café is EXPANDING

More than just soup – come for your lunch and find out how much more!

Facebook: Do you use Facebook?

There is a public church page (search Stockethill Church). It'll be used to promote the church. Please like, follow and share it widely. We also have an internal private group for church members and those associated with us. This is for sharing news, prayer requests etc. If you are not already a member – speak to Ian and he will add you.
